

BRIGHT EYED & BUSHY TAILED

Child & Parent Domestic Abuse Project 2021-22

Gateshead, South Tyneside & Newcastle.

This project is funded by the MOJ to provide therapeutic support to children and parents affected by domestic abuse until March 22

In Gateshead & South Tyneside we offer the following community-based provision:

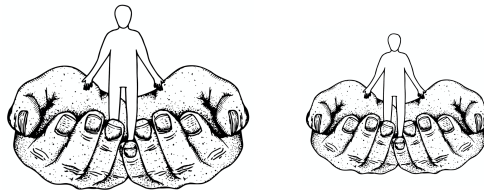

- Trauma-informed child counselling/play therapy (3-17)
- Group work for parents and children seeking to heal and recover

In Gateshead, using Self Detective resources, we will also be delivering:

- Child empowerment groups (4-17)

In Newcastle, in partnership with PuppetShip, we are providing:

- Puppet-based group work for parents and children (4-7)

Bright Eyed & Bushy Tailed is a division of Community Counselling Cooperative CIC, a not-for-profit organisation working with unmet need.

For flyers and referral forms contact Simon on 07549698050 or email communitycounsellingcoop@gmail.com

